The Management Company may terminate and/or convert the Fund through a liquidation procedure, merger with or acquisition of another fund in the best interests of investors, in accordance with the law and subject to the approval of the Commission.

Objectives: The Expat Czech PX UCITS ETF seeks to track the performance of the PX Index (the "Index"), which consists of the largest and most liquid companies traded on the Prague Stock Exchange. The Fund seeks to achieve a return on your investment through a combination of income and capital growth (total return) that reflects the performance of the Fund's Reference Index (the "Index"). The product's return is directly dependent on the performance of the assets held by the Fund, with the main factors affecting the performance being the investment strategy, the risk profile of the Fund, the recommended holding period, the cost to the investor of making the investment etc. The recommended holding period is a function of the Fund's risk profile, investment policy and expected return. The recommended holding period is calculated in accordance with the Fund's investment strategy and the time frame in which the Fund's investment objective is expected to be achieved. This Fund may not be suitable for investors who plan to withdraw their funds prior to the recommended holding period. Each investment should be considered in accordance with your specific investment objectives and risk appetite (refer to section "How long should I hold the investment, and can I withdraw my money early?").

"Expat Czech PX UCITS ETF" is a passively managed fund and adheres to the full physical replication method of an index. The fund invests only in stocks of the PX index. The factors that affect the performance of the Fund are the performance of the financial instruments in which the Fund invests, the liquidity of the stocks, the portion of the Reference Index, the performance of the market, the expenses of the Fund, etc. The expected tracking error on an annualized basis under moderate market conditions is up to 10%.

Intended Retail Investor: This product is also suitable for retail investors who have basic and/or no knowledge and no or limited experience of investing in funds, who seek to increase the value of their investment within the recommended holding period, and who are willing to take a high level of risk for their initial capital.
